The Roving November, 2024

November, 2024 Greetings, HWOTV!

The Roving for this month is really abbreviated! Your Editor was under the weather and with Show & Sale taking up most of the time, it was decided to give her a break!

Never fear, however; we still have Monica's announcements about the November meeting and other important information. Read on!

November 2024

The Harvest of Handwovens, our Show and Sale, was a resounding success! Thank you to the volunteers, demonstrators, sellers, and supporters/shoppers! Its success was truly a community effort!

Welcome to the new folks who joined at Show and Sale! Please watch for those new faces and welcome them to our meeting on November 9th. Social hour begins at 9:30. The meeting begins at 10 AM.

Thanks to all who helped with the celebration of HGA's Spinning and Weaving Week in October! HWOTV snuck in a visit to Dry Creek Preserve on Saturday, the 5th of October. On Monday, we crashed the knitting group at Panera's and met many wonderful and inquisitive folks at the Save Mart in Lemoore on Tuesday. On Wednesday, we were back in Visalia for a visit to the Tulare County Library. HWOTV split on Thursday, with some members hanging out in Yokuts Valley in the evening, while others enjoyed meeting tourists and locals at Mendoza's in Three Rivers. The Exeter Library opened its doors to us on Friday to really complete the entire week. Whether you visited one day or all five (Lisa T woooooo hoooooo), thank you for helping to celebrate and share our guild's mission.

On November 9th, we report on our challenge, Orange Ya Glad You Used Orange? to the group. Bring your orange project. Be ready to share 1-2 minutes max on the backstory and process. It will be interesting to see what some of you have done to incorporate the color orange! Consider wearing a splash of orange in your wardrobe...just for fun!

Get your party shoes on! December is our party to close the year and celebrate our community of doers. Find the perfect recipe for a potluck, bring a wrapped fiber-themed gift (OPTIONAL) with a maximum value of $20 for the Exchange Game. Be ready on the 14th of December!

The infamous HWOTV Holiday Boutique is back by (very) popular demand! This is an opportunity for anyone to sell anything handmade to anyone in the guild. It is a great way to shop for very unique last-minute gifts. There is no cost for table space. Anyone who sells, serves as their own banker. Drop me an email (rooksworld@sbcglobal.net) if you would like to sell and I will arrange enough space.

If you have been knitting/crocheting for those in our local towns who need a warm hat or scarf this winter, please bring them along for donation and distribution. Bring them on December 14th.

For new members: We have been sharing our love in this way since before COVID. Many acrylic yarns are easy to launder, making it easy to manage. In the past, most of our donations have been knitted/crocheted adult-sized hats. This is an optional project!

EXTRA! EXTRA! gathers after the meeting to discuss finishing techniques and successful trouble shooting. Feel free ask about any issues with your projects. If you've finished your towels, please bring them for show and tell. We would love to celebrate!

Squeekie's Regular Schedule is resuming! Plan to bring your wheels and spin up a storm on November 15th! Also be sure to bring your show and tell items so we can all see what you've been spinning, weaving, knitting, or crocheting! Any questions? sophieab@sbcglobal.net
